I. GENERAL SCHOOL DISTRICT INFORMATION

Welcome to the Palmerton Area School District, Home of the Blue Bombers!

The purpose of this handbook is to assist our substitute teachers with the policies and procedures of the District. Our goal is to orient the substitute teacher to the responsibilities necessary for effective classroom instruction and the ongoing success of our students.

We hope that this handbook will assist you as you assume your duties as a substitute teacher while maintaining the high standards of the Palmerton Area School District.

The Palmerton Area School District Community

The Palmerton schools are friendly communities of enthusiastic young people and supporting adults.

Palmerton Area School District and its community is committed to the success of all students in academics, athletics, art, music, and technology. We are fortunate to have a highly qualified staff of caring, quality educators who are dedicated to our mission. Their focus is on growth, achievement, and success for our two-thousand students, K-12.

We are very proud of our enthusiastic, well behaved students, highly dedicated and very talented administrators, teachers and support staff, and supportive school board.

Palmerton is located sixteen (16) miles north of Allentown, PA and one (1) hour south of Scranton, PA off Exit 74-Mahoning Valley of the Northeast Extension of the Pennsylvania Turnpike.

Our Carbon County school district is comprised of three elementary schools, one K-6, one K-1 and the other 2-6, and a Jr. High School, grades 7-8. Grades 9-12 are housed in our high school. Our young students are able to elect technical, academic, and business curriculum. Students with interests in a vocational career path may attend the Carbon County Vocational-Technical School.

We continually strive to help each of our students achieve their future dreams through a school system that remains focused on our central mission, our students.

Please review the Palmerton Area School District Shared Values below:

- Learning is a lifelong process, encouraged through a partnership of home, school and community.
- Effective communication among all students, faculty, administration, school board, parents and the community is essential for a quality school system.
- Through the promotion of a challenging standards-based curriculum and quality instruction, students are more likely to achieve their full potential.
- Technology in our schools will enhance our curriculum and provide an effective learning environment.
- Community involvement, through various projects and public events, will improve the overall success of our students.
- The student learning process is a shared responsibility among parents, students and teachers.
- Students are individual learners that deserve a quality education designed to meet their individual needs.
- Effective learning occurs in a welcoming environment that offers safety, understanding and genuine guidance.

II. EMPLOYMENT POLICY

The Palmerton Area School District cannot function at its highest level without a group of competent substitute teachers. A substitute teacher in the Palmerton Area School District is a temporary per diem employee who serves as an integral and valued part of a team to provide services to our students. In this capacity, the substitute teacher gives the students of the District a valuable professional service by continuing the learning process while their regular teacher is out of the classroom.

The effective performance and success of a substitute teacher is shared equally by the principal, the classroom teacher, and the substitute teacher. Failure of any one person to assume his or her responsibility results in a poor instructional program.

A. Hiring Procedures

Before an applicant for substitute teaching can be scheduled to work in the Palmerton Area School District, the following seven (7) procedures must be followed:

2. The following documents must be submitted and approved by the Human Resource Department:

C. Payroll Procedures

Substitutes will be paid bi-weekly in accordance with the District's pay schedule. Substitutes must sign-in on the Frontline/Aesop log sheet at the building office. Failure to sign the log sheet may delay payment of wages.

Substitutes will be paid as scheduled if the work day schedule changes due to a late start or early dismissal. Payment will not be made for a full day closure due to weather or other emergency situations.

III. SUBSTITUTE INFORMATION

A. Scheduling

After a substitute teacher has been approved for employment he/she can expect to be called by Frontline/Aesop, Palmerton's Automated Substitute Placement & Absence Management System, for immediate/daily need or advanced scheduling. Substitutes can accept assignments either by phone or they can log into Frontline/Aesop and look for available openings.

1. Immediate/Daily Need: Frontline/Aesop will begin calling substitutes as soon as an absence has been logged. Frontline/Aesop will give you the name of the teacher and building location of the assignment. The actual assignment may vary due to schedule changes, staff availability and the Principal's staffing decisions.
2. Advanced Scheduling: Frontline/Aesop will also call substitutes to fill planned staff vacancies due to conferences, meetings, personal days, etc. Advanced scheduling benefits both the substitute and the students. Substitutes are able to log into Frontline/Aesop through the Internet to look for assignments in advance.

B. Work and School Day Responsibilities

All substitutes are required to follow the schedule of the assigned school. Most assignments are a full school day unless dismissed earlier by the building principal. A one-half (1/2) hour duty free lunch is included within that school day. There are cafeterias and faculty rooms in all of our school buildings.

The work hours and job requirements will depend on the building assignment. Please see the Building Section (High School, Jr. High School and Elementary Schools) of this handbook for specific information.

Substitutes may be scheduled for a half-day assignment. A half-day assignment may cover up to 4 hours. The starting and/or ending time may vary depending on the particular situation, school building and schedule.

The substitute is responsible for obtaining information pertaining to the closing of our schools due to weather conditions or emergency situations. Announcements are made on local radio, television stations and the District website (www.palmerton.org) when schools are closed, open late, or close early.

If an emergency arises and you cannot keep your assignment, you can log into Frontline/Aesop and cancel your assignment as long as it is the day before the assignment. If you need to cancel the day of the assignment, please call or email the building principal in the assigned building or the Administration Office. Please see page 20 for contact information.

C. DRESS POLICY

The student dress code has been a topic of huge concern in the District for some time. We now have a student dress policy. Just as we have expectations for the students, the community has expectations for us as staff. We must be appropriate role models for students and dress professionally. Therefore, in the interest of both professionalism and good public relations, it is appropriate to outline the expectations regarding dress for staff.

Clothing for custodial, maintenance, and cafeteria staff is described in contract or by the appropriate supervisor. For all other staff, the following guidelines are the expected dress.

1. Business casual is fine.
2. For female staff, garments revealing cleavage are not appropriate. Likewise, short skirts/dresses or shorts/skorts, halter tops, sundresses, and sleeveless or tank tops are not appropriate. Tops must have at least a one inch strap.
3. For male staff, khakis and polo shirt or preferably shirt and tie are most suitable, depending upon the weather. Jeans should be reserved for dress down day.
4. For physical education staff, neat warm-up suits are very appropriate.
5. Footwear – no flip flops or beach shoes, no “combat” boots or work boots, no “garden” shoes. Platform heels/soles and very high heels are a safety hazard.
6. For dress down day, jeans in good condition without holes or fraying are allowable. Tops may be polo shirts and other sleeved shirts in good taste.
7. Of course the limitations regarding inappropriate language and references would apply to staff as well as students.
8. Appropriate styles of clothing with “Palmerton Blue Bombers”, “Palmerton Area School District”, or “Palmerton Area Education Association” are appropriate – they do encourage school and community spirit.

There may be occasions or class situations where the nature of the activity will require some variation. There may be a class of children requiring the teacher frequently to be on the floor with small children – please dress accordingly.

Dress down day should be “celebrated” with the scholarship purpose in mind. It should occur only on the last working day of the week.

Please remember that the adults are the models for the students. The public expects no less from us. Thanks in advance for your cooperation.

D. Daily Responsibilities

The substitute teacher is to assume all the responsibilities of the regular classroom teacher on the day or days he or she is assigned. The principal and/or building secretary will help you find your classroom and answer your questions. The substitute is required to obtain and complete a Substitute Teacher Report form (please see page 21).

Check the teacher's mailbox and desktop for whom you are substituting to obtain pertinent information about your class and schedule. Secure the teacher's plan book and seating chart(s). It is important to introduce yourself to the teachers near your room. If you have any questions, they can be of assistance to you. Acquaint yourself with fire exits and emergency plans.

The substitute teacher's first objective is to gain the respect of the students. This can be achieved by being prompt, neat, honest, and firm and by having a definite objective. Student attendance should be noted for the teacher.

The substitute teacher is expected to follow the teacher's plans as best as he/she can. When plans are not understandable, help should be sought from another teacher or the principal.

The substitute teacher is expected to maintain control over the class and avoid all physical confrontations. All major problems should be referred to the school office. Become familiar with the building procedures and student discipline policy by reviewing the Parent/Student Handbook which can be reviewed on the district's website.

The substitute teacher can expect the building principal to come into his/her classroom periodically to observe classroom technique.

The substitute teacher is expected to perform any duties assigned by the teacher and to oversee proper bus dismissal of the students in his/her class.

The substitute teacher must leave the room in the same physical condition he/she found it (ex. chairs up, blackboards clean, etc.)

The substitute teacher is expected to correct any papers or workbooks he/she has done with the class unless they are materials that require special attention by the regular classroom teacher (ex. essay tests).

At the end of the day, the substitute must complete a Substitute Teacher Report form outlining what was accomplished during the day and turn in any relevant materials to the office. These forms are available in the office. Please leave the report form on the teacher's desk or in the teacher's mailbox. The teacher will forward this form to the principal. If a substitute is assuming an assignment for more than two days, he or she should develop a teacher plan to provide continuity of instruction.

Substitute teachers are invited to discuss their work with the principals. An appointment may be made through the principal's secretary.

E. Classroom Information

The classroom teacher will seek to provide all of the following information for a substitute:

1. An up-to-date seating chart or class list.
2. A class schedule.
3. An explanation of how opening exercises are handled.
4. A lesson plan book with clear and concise lessons stated.
5. The class grade book.
6. An explanation of how special events such as assemblies, programs, films, etc. are handled.
7. The Faculty Handbook.
8. A list of specific building procedures such as attendance, lunch, etc.
9. A list of students with special needs.
10. Other duties for which the substitutes are responsible.

F. Tips for Successful Substituting

- Follow the regular teacher's program.
- Report student progress to the classroom teacher only. Allow the regular classroom teacher to report to parents or to discuss grades with students.
- The work of other teachers should be confidential and not discussed.
- Students' cumulative records are confidential and should not be given out to anyone.
- Be responsible for safety and security of all children. Do not turn your back on any problem.
- Administering corporal punishment is not permitted.
- Students should be supervised in the classroom at all times; hallways should not be used as a means of punishment.
- Maintain control at all times and do not leave the classroom unsupervised.
- Assign only what has been requested by the regular classroom teacher.
- Do not make unfavorable comparisons between teachers, classes, schools, or school districts.
- Notes may not be sent to a parent's or guardian's home without checking with the building principal first.
- Matters of a confidential nature regarding students and/or staff should not be discussed with others, except with the principal or on an emergency basis with other personnel, such as the school nurse or counselor.
- Complete assigned position for half or full day. Obtain permission for leaving assigned position for any unplanned personal emergency or illness.
- Cell phone usage in the classroom is not permitted.
